

Figure 4. The confirmatory-sweep slope is significant only at the smallest scale, and significance of its decline depends on including all four Joint interaction test (one common slope across all four scales): $\chi^2=12.84$, $p=0.0050$ — rejected.

